Hawkins Hall symbolizes the beginning of what is now Plattsburgh State University College. From the beginning, for 103 years, the past has been a part of the future, but for now let us remember Plattsburgh as we know it — in the present. Plattsburgh as we will remember it . . .

This yearbook is respectfully dedicated to Mr. Al Montanaro. We recognize him for his encouragement and personal commitment to the students of Plattsburgh. Through his involvement in forensics, as Chair of the Communication Arts Department, as an educator, and most especially for his many years of never-ending contribution and enthusiastic support in the production of the Cardinal Yearbook, he has demonstrated outstanding loyalty and dedication to Plattsburgh State.

WEEKENDS . . .

Week-ends at Plattsburgh State symbolize different things to different people. To some, it is a time to spend relaxing with friends. To others, it is a chance to try new and exciting things. Late night parties followed by late morning brunches, Saturdays spent cheering the red and white, and Sundays spent trying to accomplish the ever dreaded homework. All of these things are events we have experienced.

HOMECOMING PARADE

October 15,
1983

Saturday, October 15th dawned a chilly day for Homecoming '83. During the previous week, festivities included the Coronation and crowning of Ted Sofianos and Sue Coughlin as King and Queen. All dorms had been busy stuffing chicken wire and the creative floats of the parade were the result. Defredenburgh Hall took first place overall and Hood Hall took first place for dorms. Saturday afternoon brought an alumni luncheon and a soccer game between Plattsburgh and SUNY Potsdam, with Plattsburgh gaining a victory, 1 to 0. The celebrations culminated Saturday night with the semi-formal held in the field house. "Stairway to the Stars" was the theme of the dance and was attended by the AKEBA King and Queen, Russell Banks and Juanita Wooten.

HALLOWEEN '83 . . .

TALKING HEADS . . .

September 30, 1983

On Friday, Sept. 30, David Byrne took the PSUC Fieldhouse stage to perform a solo version of "Psycho Killer." This was just the start of an incredible concert by Talking Heads. One by one, the other band members joined Byrne on stage. They went on to play a twenty-one song set which included some of their older songs like "Cities", "Love Goes" and "Building on Fire", as well as new songs like "Making Flippy Floppy" and the top ten hit, "Burning Down the House" from their album, Speaking in Tongues. The crowd of more than 3800 people danced and cheered throughout the concert, which was brought to Plattsburgh by David Brickman and the Concert Committee.

STRAY CATS . . .

Due to the efforts of the Concert Committee, under the direction of David Brickman, on February 3, the Stray Cats played to a crowd of 2,500 people at the PSUC Field House. Lead singer Brian Setzer danced around the stage all night. Drummer Slim Phantom played from atop, and in front of his drums, letting up only to take a few sips of Jack Daniels. Lee Rocker occasionally stood on his bass while playing a strong bass line. A group of five singers, calling themselves, Fourteen Karat Soul preceeded the Stray Cats, their doo-wop style and harmonizing complimenting the Cats' 50's sound. For their encore, the Stray Cats played "Oh Boy" as a tribute to Buddy Holly on the anniversary of his death.

“Rock This Town”

Ron Darian

Kelley Rodgers

Bob Friedhoffer

Winter Weekend '84 was kicked off on Friday, February 10th, by the second installment of "Let's Dance", called "Let's Laugh". Through the efforts of the Activities Coordination Board, under the direction of Sam Drury, three comedians were brought to Plattsburgh State. Kelley Rodgers, Ron Darian and Bob Friedhoffer, all up and coming stars from the same agency, brought laughs and good times to all in attendance.

On Saturday, February 11th, the Winter Weekend semi-formal was held in the ballroom and the upper floor of the College Center. "Love is in the Air" was the theme that set the mood for this special occasion. Romantic couples danced to the upbeat music that filled the air. It was a great prelude to Valentine's Day, which was just around the corner.

A Typical Weekend . . .

It isn't easy to define a typical weekend at Plattsburgh State. Each of us has our own ideas. However, there are some things that we all do . . . For instance, getting up in the morning (or in some cases — the afternoon) for brunch. It's on Saturday and Sunday mornings that we go without our showers and trudge into the dining halls, in our sweats. It's a tradition and not the only one! What about the ever so popular naps during the afternoon or the midnight munchies? Another favorite pastime during the weekend is just plain lounging out and talking with friends. It's on those days that you often wonder where the day went and why your homework didn't finish itself. The last, and definitely not the least important aspect of the weekend, is the nightlife. Long, late nights are spent dancing at parties, drinking downtown or hitting off campus and floor parties. After a long week of classes, we all enjoy the time during the weekend to do whatever our heart desires, each in our different yet similar ways.

...At Plattsburgh State

One of the pleasures found in the North Country is skiing. Whether your preference is downhill or cross-country, Whiteface Mountain provides the excitement and challenge that both the amateur and professional seek in the pursuit of excellence in winter sports.

SKIING '83-'84

GOOD TIMES . . .

A time to push aside your books and spend some times with your friends. A time to cheer, a time to laugh, and most of all, a time to remember. The good times we share at Plattsburgh will always be cherished.

LIFESTYLES

Each day contains the reassurance of our homes. Whether they are dorms, apartments or houses, these are the places we can relax and be ourselves. We take with us the memories of those with whom we shared our life styles.

GREEKS . . .

Greeks on campus offer an interesting and lively alternative to the normal social life of Plattsburgh. However, the ten Greek organizations are also a major force in the community, serving as a major organizer of charitable functions.

INTERFRAT

The continuous harmonic relationship enjoyed between the various fraternal organizations would not be possible without the hard work of a dedicated group of individuals—Interfrat. Interfrat is composed of members of each fraternity and sorority on campus, and is responsible for all activities which involve more than one Greek organization.

Charity drives are a major community function of the many Greek organizations, and of Interfrat. The continuous exchange of ideas and information, which strengthens all the Greeks through Interfrat, helps to maintain a strong relationship between all Greeks and the campus at large. Greeks are very proud of their individuality, and Interfrat supports and strengthens this by using this as a common bond for the greater good of all.

CANDIDS

ALPHA PHI GAMMA (GAMMAS)

ΑΦΓ

Since the Fall of 1981 when Alpha Phi Gamma was established our sorority has risen to a proud number of 41 sisters. Recognized as "the girls in garnet and gray who carry teddy bears", we stand by the meaning of our sorority — "The Beginning of Friendship".

We are a very close knit organization who have a strong common bond of sisterhood yet each sister strives to maintain her individuality and uniqueness in hopes to better the sorority and the Plattsburgh State campus as a whole.

On campus and in the community we are well known for our Blood Drives, March of Dimes Walkathons, and fundraisers for local charities.

In our first fully established year we were proud to be the recipients of the Scholastic Cup. This year we have "captured" The President's Cup the highest award at Plattsburgh State, in honor and recognition of community and campus services.

Alpha Phi Gamma has grown a great deal in a short time and will continue to grow through the strength and bonding of our sisterhood.

ALPHA CHI RHO

(CROWS)

AXP

The Sigma Tau Phi chapter of the National Fraternity of Alpha Chi Rho received its national charter in 1981. Our name has traditionally been associated with campus and community involvement, outstanding parties at our house, which is located at 142 Brinkerhoff Street and intramural excellence.

During the past years, we have organized and participated in campus and charity fundraisers which netted over $15,000. These services in previous years had led us to win the President's cup. This year we were presented with 1st. place along with Theta Alpha Lambda sorority, for having the best float at this year's homecoming weekend.

Our membership is open to any male student attending Plattsburgh State. Once inside the doors of our house, you'll feel the enthusiasm that all the brothers of Alpha Chi Rho possess.

ΘΑΛ

THETA ALPHA LAMBDA (THALIANS)

Pride in our accomplishments, in who we are and in where we're going is just one facet of the emotions held by the Thaliens. We are a group of girls who through our community projects, scholastic achievements, campus activities and social functions have much to be proud of, too!

Theta Alpha Lambda sorority is a blend of unique individuals, each with their own ideas of love, loyalty and unity. They bring these ideas together and through cooperation and much hard work help to establish a definition of sisterhood.

Active participants in the campus Homecoming the Thaliens were co-recipients of the first place award for floats in the Greek Division and proudly received the Scholastic Award for highest overall cum. Being in the community is a major part of sorority affairs. To date we have worked for the American Cancer Society, Salvation Army, CVPH Blood Drives and given time to numerous homes for the aged.

Continuing to grow in numbers the Thaliens are always ready to open their hearts to new members. Always striving to maintain our ideas of friendship and loyalty we are sincere in our belief that Thalian girls are the best.

THETA KAPPA BETA

(BETAS)

ΘKB

The Theta Kappa Beta Fraternity started in 1959, founded by a group of Korean War Veterans. Since then it has grown and decreased in number but never once did it slacken its own respect for its ideals. It strives for love between its individual members, honor amongst other organizations on campus, and a faith in God that its love will perpetuate the organization.

The BETAS have been actively involved in college community services, including Bi-Annual Blood Drive, Plattsburgh Earth Day (P.R.I.D.E.) The United Way, The Heart Fund, The Cancer Society, and the Community Hospital and County Nursing Home Services.

With our ever growing Brotherhood, the Beta's have been able to establish a scholarship for its brothers, as well as contributing to the college foundation in an effort to help those students who are in need.

But most importantly, the BETAS are BROTHERS. And with our strength in our brotherhood, we will continue to grow in the future and to help our college community neighbors, and most importantly to help each other.

ALPHA KAPPA PHI (AGO'S)

AKΦ

Alpha Kappa Phi holds individualism as one of the most important aspects of sorority. As distinct personalities, we feel that by combining the various talents and interests of many, we can emerge as an effective constructive force.

With every new sister welcomed into Ago, a totally new experience happens for the individual and the group. There are many friendships, happiness and even some disappointments involved in the sorority but each adventure is a learning experience.

PI ALPHA NU (PINEAPPLES)

ΠΑΝ

Pi Alpha Nu is the oldest fraternity at Plattsburgh State, established in the fall of 1957.

Pi Alpha Nu is a high spirited fraternity that stands up for its ideals. Our fraternity's aims are to promise high standards of scholarship, character and fellowship. This brotherhood maintains these aims through its social activities and services.

Our pledging centers around a sharing of ideas between brothers and prospective brothers. We don't try to make one conform to our ideas, we use ones individuality to better ourselves.

ALPHA DELTA THETA

(AD'S)

ΑΔΘ

Alpha Delta Theta has been a vital organization at Plattsburgh State for 58 years. During this time we have been actively involved in community projects as well as those here on campus. Among these are an annual fund drive for the Heart Fund and visiting various homes and hospitals during the holiday season.

Being an Alpha Delta means expanding horizons. It begins with pledging a time of self discovery and continues through the years with increased social and civic awareness. Our ideals of sisterhood bond us to each other through good times and bad. Individuality, Unity, Respect.

PSI EPSILON CHI

(PSI EP)

ΨEX

Psi Epsilon Chi, founded in 1968 is the only Greek organization at Plattsburgh State to own its own house. Our house, located across from MacDonough Hall, is well known for its basement and warm weather porch parties. We are a community action organization, always looking to help out the Cancer Society or other such groups.

We encourage any men interested in Psi Ep to come find out what we are all about.

ΦΚΧ

PHI KAPPA CHI (CLIOS)

Phi Kappa Chi, also known as the Clios, have once again proven that we are a distinguishable, unique group of individuals. We stress sisterhood, as well as an "Active Social Awareness".

Although we are constantly changing, we still maintain our traditional values. Not only are we growing in number, but we are also growing in spirit and pride.

"Out of 100 people surveyed, the only answer is Phi Kappa Chi".

SIGMA PI

(SIG PI)

ΣΠ

Phi Delta Omega, Plattsburgh State's newest Greek organization, was formed in the Spring of 1983 with the intention of becoming a national fraternity. In the Fall of 1983 Phi Delta Omega became a colony of Sigma Pi, the fastest growing and currently the fourteenth largest fraternity in the nation. Now, with the moral support and financial backing of eighty thousand Sigma Pi brothers an even stronger brotherhood has been formed. Now we can, and will, aid Plattsburgh State and its surrounding community with fund raisers, entertaining activities, and with ideas that are working in 140 other colleges around the nation.

Though becoming a strong and stable organization is a goal focus, we deeply believe in the privacy and freedom of the individual. Together, each individual member will contribute to the ongoing success of the Sigma Pi brotherhood.

CARDINAL POINTS STAFF PLAYS MUSICAL CHAIRS

Cardinal Points, the student paper at PSUC, underwent a major editorial shakeup prompted by the resignation of the three top editors.

Healy left for an internship at the local paper, the Press Republican, and from there will graduate into the career world.

Weisbroth left the paper to pursue a career in politics, as Executive Vice-President of the Student Senate, a seat for which he ran unopposed.

Edmonds left for a semester in England, where he will continue as Cardinal Points' first foreign correspondent.

Following elections held last week, Jeff Cochran takes over the position of Editor in Chief. He was formerly the Photography Editor.

Karen Ulrich takes over in the number two editorial position. Formerly the Layout Editor, Ulrich sees the change as a "career move".

The rest of the Cardinal Point's staff — Bobby VonGoeben as Editor for the Arts; Carey Avenia as Business Manager; Annette Valenti as General Manager; Joe LoTempio as Sports Editor; Scott Florence as Ad Sales Manager with Tammy Astor as the new Co-Manager; Kim Marchino as Typesetter; Sandy, Sherri, Mike, Bob, Zina and all the others will continue to produce the weekly campus news, and expand on a tradition of quality.

Coach's Corner

"The Plattsburgh State Cardinals fared well in 1983 with their 4-8-1 overall record, despite having only three starters from their 1982 squad. In conference play, the Cards were 2-3 and one of those wins were against nationally ranked Binghamton State. Dom Szambowski, Donovan Scott, and Rick Damore earned All-SUNYAC honors. Donovan Scott was also named second team All-American. 1984 looks promising as there were only two seniors on the 1984 squad."

VOICES

Joan heard voices, and she burned for it.
Driving through the dark
I write poems.
Last night I drove through a stop sign, pondering line breaks.
When I explained
the policeman nodded,
then he gave me
a ticket.
Someone who knows told me
writers have fifteen years:
then comes repetition,
even madness.
Like Midas, I guess
everything we touch turns to a poem—
when the spell is on.
But think of the poet after that touching the trees
he's always touched,
but this time nothing happens.
Picture him rushing from trunk to trunk, bruising
his hands on the rough bark.
Only five years left.
Sometimes I bury
my poems in the garden,
saving them
for the cold days ahead.
One way or another
you burn for it.

PAIN

What would I do
Without you
My seamstress you
With a needle in your mouth
Swift as a bee's sting

Sew stitch
These body rags
With the last thread of Daylight sing them
Into wedding-clothes

You and me and the lamp
The house like a nest
Our mother bluebird long gone
Our father falcon hunting

What would I do
Without you without
Your voice
That names and names
The streams and rivers
Of our days on earth.

The air-guitar rock mime struts his stuff on his bedroom stage. After the show he lies on his bed and stares at the walls. There his heroes are captured in their best moves. The music moves him to a rain forest of lights and viney cords where wall-of-sound warriors walk with cymbal scarred ears. He leaps from the bed and restarts the primal ballet, hands punching through air. He is a magic man now, weaving spell and tale for the awestruck tribe. The spell ends, and the mime is left with his silence.

From the Fields Below

I cannot say what robin answered me, but there was one last-twilight, dark-descending one that spoke across the hawthorns' fading flowers, the dying white of shadblow disk-falling.

I heard that murmur of the robin's talk,
last words that spoke, past the hawthorn white,
beyond the shrubby dogwood's lingering brightness — brief words out of swelling fragrant pause before the day became the utter night.

I cannot say which bird, but I am sure he sought to reach me with language more than birds' — for he had seen me pass and knew my speech was such as love addresses to mate and child;
and so, recalling, he spoke a fragment to me —

love's half-conscious hope and desperate denial of that recurring inconceivable death of day.

A TIME REVISITED

by Itha Lee Reed

Two grain elevators towered over the river, their tops reaching up toward the flat blue sky dotted with white cotton clouds. The scene was reflected perfectly on the river's motionless surface.

On the opposite bank, newly laid railroad track glistened in the warm yellow light. Beyond that was a farm house, and gently rolling patchwork fields. A tractor stood idle near a fence, and fat black and white cows contentedly sniffed the clover.

Far away a low rumbling sound interrupted the silence. It grew louder and louder until around the bend in the river, almost out of sight, a wisp of black smoke smudged the blue sky. The noise and the acrid tasting smoke both increased and soon a train came into view. It charged forward like a prehistoric monster along the newly laid track. The initials B. & O. were painted on the side of the engine, and the words Baltimore and Ohio on the freight cars.

The ground shook and the clear surface of the river became a mass of jagged ripples. The once benign looking reflections became disjointed fingers, reaching unsuccessfully for the noisy train which roared by leaving black smoke in its wake. Soon it was out of sight; and in a little while the smoke had disappeared too. All was silent and peaceful again.

"Is that what it was like when you ran the steam trains, Grandpa?" Tommy asked. Grandfather wasn't listening. He watched the train until it disappeared around a bend. Then he took a gold watch out of his black uniform pocket, brought it up to his thick wire framed glasses, checked the time, smiled, and pushed his conductor's cap back over his white hair.

"The B.&O.'s on time, like always, rain or shine, she's always on time," he muttered, happily shaking his head as the miniature train chugged to a stop in front of the cardboard station.

Through the snow cornered pane
I see everything I've ever missed
Piling up — undone
And slowly melting — unachievable
Thoughts are falling
Indecision, indifference
And I watch myself
Piling up in a melting mound
Suffering in the life-long sun
Until a mercifully cruel winter wind
Blows away snow and soul
And the flakes lie quietly
Like scattered ashes.

The Lost Memory

A pink, faded nightgown
worn soft as goose-down,
with reinforced underarms
and ancient, hidden charms, keeps a young girl warm.

In the back, a small hole unwillingly grows—
fearful of rejection,
of becoming tiresome,
and no longer worn.

The front springs open
at the slightest touch;
the slots for buttons
were used too much
by a girl-grandma.

Its softness is comforting—absently reminding of the girl who warmed
the nightgown for a girl she never knew.

Erena L. Fulton

I had died earlier in the week — a tragic, needless death. And I had been walking for a time on a dingy cloud, with bare patches revealing the earth below, small and spinning like a child's blue marble. Now I set down my bags. I had reached Heaven, according to the sign. The high cement wall extended in both directions and out of sight. Over the barred gate a red neon sign blared the name of the place. Still I wasn't sure . . .

I approached the lone figure beneath the gate, a grizzled man in a tattered MacIntosh, huddled over a pale fire in a 50-gallon drum. He looked like a couple of wire hangers jammed crazily into an overcoat.

Excuse me, I said. This is Heaven, isn't it?

He remarked me indifferently, and drew a paper bag from his inside pocket. Yep, he said, this is it all right. Want a jolt? Keeps back the cold. . . .

God, no, thank you, I said, hefting my suitcases. But if you'll be kind enough to open the gate; I've had a tragic death, and a tiresome walk getting here; I'm sure you understand.

He drank again, and passed his sleeve across his chin. Gate opening ain't my department, and I understand about the walk. The walk's longer for some than others. But the 'tragic death' part just don't sit right with me. I just don't see what you mean by 'tragic'. . . .

I'm a writer, I said. It was instinctive. I mean, I was a writer. Unpublished for five years, almost one short story per week, or two weeks. It was said that my time was just about come. 'A great unrealized talent,' they called me.

What's so tragic about that? he asked.

I'm twenty-two, I said, growing impatient. My work was never read by anyone. After twenty-two years — twenty-two tragedy-free years — I'm a corpse, a cipher, a memory. . . .

I'll never realize my full potential now. It's a shame.

Yeah, sure, he said. A tragic death ain't nothing. Try living a tragic life. Poor from birth, belly always empty, then when my parents died I worked as a migrant to support my two little brothers. Along about then drinking crept up behind me and I lost what family I had. I suffered until the day I died. A broken body and soul at sixty-two. Truth is, friend, you had it easy. And truth is I don't see what you had to write about if things were so goddamned good. . . .

I'm bein' honest with you.

He turned a milky eye on me, and offered the bottle again. This time I knocked it back, whiskey, fire in my throat but somehow reassuring. The fire in the drum grew faint, and he stripped the bag from the bottle and added it to the flames. I opened my suitcase, the smaller one, and took out the stack of folders containing my finished manuscripts, and shook each and every one into the fire. . . .

Funny thing, he said, wiggling his fingertips in the glow. You never become a good writer until you're dead and gone. He paused. Here, finish this off.

I took the bottle and drained it. I hadn't thought about it that way. The flames licked the edge of the drum, and the warmth of the fire penetrated the chill that had already begun to creep into my bones.

KEHOE CANDIDS

President Joseph Burke

I hope each senior will remember that you are unique with unique abilities and talents. There never has been and never will be another person just like you. You owe it to yourself and society to always try to do the best that you can do. For always remember, there is only one you.

SENIORS . . .

Senior year is a sad time for all members of the Plattsburgh State community. At this time having to say goodbye has become a reality. To the graduating class, we wish you the best of luck always.

This page is dedicated to the memory of Michelle Martin by her family, friends, and the class of 1984. Michelle died July 11, 1982.

To all of my friends, you're the greatest people. We've had a lot of good times together. We've done some wild and crazy things together too and we will always have those memories, those laughs, and those very memorable road trips. You people will always be with me in spirit. John W. Douglas — better known as J. D.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Pentony — to the greatest Mom and Dad. Thank you for giving me values to live by, the wisdom to achieve, and the understanding that I needed; not only throughout my college years, but throughout my entire life. You have always been there for me and I love you both so very much . . . With much love and appreciation, Ellen Pentony

Lori: It's been a long time since that day freshman year when we dragged the refrigerator back to Macdonough. I'll never forget all the terrible things you did to me — from the water balloons in my bed to hanging my stuffed animals. But, believe it or not, I love you anyway and I'll really miss you. Love, Jane

Jan Hardenbrook: Thanks for being the best roomie that anyone could ever ask for. I'll never forget all the great times we had these past three years. And by the way, sorry about waking you and making such a mess the night of your A&P test. Love Always, your favorite roomie

Susan Sullivan — Congratulations! You're now a graduate of Plattsburgh State. What an honor! Things won't be the same without you. We had a lot of good times, and we'll always have the great memories. Good luck in everything you do. I'll always be there for you. You're a great sister and a special friend. Love, Donnalyne

To the Women-of-Life — Deb Moran, who's clothes will I wear?; Mo Macri, you've got red hair — Dre Spidalier: I'll miss my favorite culture buff!; Robin Iannuzo, who'll aggravate me?; MB Tyrell, who'll babble on and on when I'm half awake? I love you and I'll miss you all! Tamara

To Dawna Quigley,

I will definitely miss you next year but you are now going into the real world. Good luck, I know you'll make it. Thank you for being such a good friend these past two years. I know we don't always think the same about things — such as my lack of activity . . . but we still remained friends. May your future be as bright and full of life as you deserve. I miss you already. I love you very much.

Love ya,
MO

Dear Jodie Price and all of my good friends in Block IIB Special Education: Well, we made it!! Thanks for being such a warm, supportive, fun class. I never could have done it without some strong shoulders! Jodie, you're the greatest and you know why! Best of luck always, woman! Love, Carol Barr

To the beautiful friends I've made at Plattsburgh, "When a friend asks, there is no tomorrow." You've made the lonely times pass quickly, and the good times even better. I wish you all the love, luck, and happiness life can hold for you. The miles keep us separated, but the memories will keep us close . . . I love you.

Ellen Pentony

Donna Knapp: Can we talk? Remember when Knapper graduated, and Beth cried for an entire semester? It's a damn shame. Then, she realized that the best was yet to come. How impressed men would be with their diplomas!! They'll be snakes forever. Congratulations, but I'll miss you very much. (Don't Go.) We've come a long way, and we've had the best of times. Just like we'll continue to do forever. B.B.K. You queeah. Love always, Beth Brian P. Genalo — How can I thank you enough for all you've done for me and been to me since we first met. I love you so much. Congratulations kiddo — you made it! — all my love, Carol

To Carri (a.h.a. The Head Honcho of Yearbook)

I'm glad we got to become friends. Yes, I can be a bit impatient and callous; but so are 9 a.m. phone calls to my house!! Luge is for losers — so if you ever want to see the real world, come to my office — BOBSLED. Kidding aside, thank you for your friendship and badly needed support.

Love, Tracy

To Mo Quinn: No matter what your morales may be, Mo, I still love ya, and I'm really going to miss you! Love, Dawna

Barb Berkowitz — A little personal to you from me. Well, what can I say? You are the best friend I could ever hope for, and I'm going to miss you lots. Love, Emily

To Johnna and Gina,

You are both wild and great!! I'll miss you like I miss the sun!!
Always Friends,
Tracy

To the guys who occupy 90A and 90B Wilson — You are unique. You made this year interesting! E.T.

To those previously mentioned above: Double that and add "quite interesting!" I'll miss you guys, but I'll be visiting . . .

Love, Dawna

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ, What a privilege to have met each of you. I know God has thoughts of good for all those that will seek him. I treasure these years with you, but look forward to eternity! I love you, Patricia McGuinness

Christine — You've been the best roommate anyone could ever ask for. I'll keep my hat and jersey in moth balls until that special day comes along. Thank you for a fantastic four years. Love, Jane

To Champy and the Radio Bro, Paula-Pee and Pamalola, the Wells Street Flasher, Cookie, and Rusty Jones, and everyone at Duke's Dugout, even Horvath (what a funny name) thanks for making Plattsburgh a little more bearable. I'll miss you all more than you know. Love, Marlane

To Angela M.C.,

Good luck and wishes on your bright future. This past year has been the best. You are definitely a great part of Campus Life (R.A.). Thank you so much for being a friend when I needed it most. I promise not to do anything foolish with "Centerfold J.P." Good luck with your new beginning and please keep in touch. Don't ever change, you are great as you are. Be good and if you are ever on L.I., meet me at Tiffany's. I'll miss having our long meals at Clinton but I know someone will be into blowing off work like me. Love you bunches — MO

To Albert Montanaro Jr. (a.h.a. The Rhino)

You have been a true friend in both emotional and educational support. When I look to the future, I know that you have helped me make it there. Thank you for the years of guidance.

— Tracy

Janet Palmer — To a wonderful lady and the best friend I could ever have. You'll never know how much I'm going to miss you. I know you're going to make it someday. But, "Damn it women," just don't forget about us little people in the process. Take care. I love you. Dawn

Jane Ferguson — It's been four great years. Many times I couldn't have made it without you. Don't forget the big red ones, the puddles in the tent we all heard about, the bear we built in your room Freshman year, and of course all the fun things we did in sorority — especially you burping in the middle of our formal song. Love you and will miss you, Lori

To my precious family, for listening, for understanding, and for the encouragement you have given me throughout the years. In your own special way you have made me believe in myself.

I love you all — Ellen Pentony

Mom, Dad and Laurie, Thank you so much for supporting me throughout college. It means a lot to me. I love you all.

Kerry Zorn

To my friends — Thank you ever so much for making my "collegiate" years the best years of my life. How lucky I am to know people who make saying goodbye so damn hard. The days have gone by fast. But the good times and friends will never be forgotten . . .

I love you all — Terry

Maureen Quinn — Thanks for being such a great friend these past two years. I hope your remaining years at P'Burgh will be great!

Miss Ya — E.T.

Dear Pam Hepinstall, From Shaker High to PSUC, we've been together all the way! Time flies when you're having anxiety attacks! You've been the bestest of best friends. I love you. Good luck always! Love, Carol Barr

To all my graduating sisters: I wish you all the best of luck times and lots of tissues for when they sing Senior Song to us. I'll miss you all! Love, Hane

Robert Goodfellow, my dearest Bobby — The long telephone conversations . . . The phone bills! . . . Trips to P'Burgh . . . Your constant encouragement . . . Your gentleness . . . Your smile . . . Your patience . . . The tears . . . The laughter . . . Your understanding . . . Our honeast . . . We did it! I'm coming home! I will love you forever and always. Your best friend, Ellen Pentony

To Karl Blombach: Dear Lightest of Lights, I will never forget you or the love that we share. I am and always will be "struck by lightning." Love Robin R. (Heely Face Trim Snake)

Lori — you pervert — It's been great rooming with you. If you don't learn to clean your room, you'll never find a husband! Take care of Buford. Love Elaine

To Maria L. Mason, You finally made it! You got your degree, you got the cross country course record — and best of all, you got me. Thanks for being the great person that you are. I love you.

Love, John J. Jerician

John Joseph Jerician — I'll love you forever! MLM

To all graduating Greeks, Congratulations and best of luck in your future. Hope to see you Homecoming weekends and future Hell nights. Love, the sisters of Theta Alpha Lambda

To my good friend E.T. who's craziness and good humor was there when I needed it. We made it! After your weekend "recipes" it's a miracle we survived. Who says we have to stop the tradition after graduation? Not me! No matter where we end up, let's keep in touch. After all, we have to let each other know if Laurie's class paid off! You're definitely out of this world, woman!

Love ya, Dawna

D.J.,

If you ever see this, remember one thing: P'Burgh was not just an educational experience, but also a true growing-up process. I wish you the best life has to offer . . .

Marty "McGarret" Blaha — Thanks for being a good friend. You were always there when we needed you — especially when it was time to order Domino's. We know you'll never forget us. How could you? Lots of luck in the future! Love Becki & Jill

Dear Jane, Renee, Jan, Lori P., Christine, Cindy, Kim, and Myra; This may sound corny, but I love you and I'm seriously going to miss you! Love always in Theta Alpha Lambda. Susan-xo

Dawna Quigley — To a sweet girl, a good friend, and a heck of an R.A. We love you and we'll miss you. Your neighbors — Kelly & Sue

"Hane" — If you don't keep in touch, you'll regret it! Remember all the crazy times, especially "Lola" and the formals. You better come visit often. Maybe we can pull Jill's bandana down again! Love ya, Muddy

To E.T. Tuohy,

To one of the great people ever to hit P'burgh. A true "goddess". I know you are only a mere popette, but in time . . . Be good and good luck now and always. You are truly a very special friend and I will miss you very much. You better keep in touch or I will be very angry. Remember all of the fun we shared and keep in mind that "A god in a station wagon is better than a vampire in a starry area." Love you bunches, Mo Q.

It will not be the last one, for sure.

To Suhr Family, You have all given me the love, care and support I needed to get through the nursing program. You showed me understanding when I was at my lowest points, and gave me the will and the strength to try that much harder. I appreciate the effort you have put in to see me through these past four years. Thank you very much for everything. I love you all!! Mom & Dad, looks like you have three nurses in the family. Love, Debbie Suhr

1974-

President of State University College at Plattsburgh

In 1889 the New York State legislature passed an act to establish a Normal and Training School in the town of Plattsburgh. Mr. Fox Holden was appointed the principal of this new educational institution in 1890 where he remained until 1892.

Dr. Edward N. Jones succeeded Holden in 1892. During Jones' administration a new wing was added to the southern side of the Normal School building as well as the introduction of a Kindergarten class to the school's curriculum.

Dr. George K. Hawkins succeeded Dr. Jones in 1898. Two years after Dr. Hawkins became principal, the Normal school became a teacher's training school. Tragedy occurred when the Normal School burned down during Dr. Hawkins term as principal. Due to the fire, classes were moved, in 1929, to the Plattsburgh City Hall until the new one-million dollar building was finished in 1932.

Dr. Ward became principal after Dr. Hawkins retired in 1933. During Dr. Ward's administration, the school went through its largest expansion. Such events occurred as the changing of the Normal School to the State Teachers College at Plattsburgh, the establishment of a four year economics class, the election of Dr. Ward to the presidency of the New York State Teachers Association, Twin Valleys being purchased for the college and the building of McDonough Hall.

After the death of Dr. Ward in 1952, Dr. Redcay was appointed to the position of acting president.

In 1954, yet another president was named, this time the job went to Dr. Angell. During this period, a five year plan was incorporated for more expansion. Plans included a $700,000.00 budget for new dormitories and the expansion of Rugar Street to allow for more space. The Normal School was renamed Hawkins Hall and the economics building became known as Ward Hall.

In 1974, Dr. Joseph Burke became the president of Plattsburgh State University College, a position he still holds today. During his administration, he has overseen the construction and dedication of the Benjamin J. Feinberg library.

From 1899 through the present, educational opportunities have grown immensely. Plattsburgh has grown in size, not just physically, but in faculty, students and academic and social areas. Following is a view of where Plattsburgh has come from and where it is going . . .

What is presently the State University College at Plattsburgh began in 1889 as the Plattsburgh State Teachers Training School. This two-year institution, more properly known as the "Normal School", functioned for the sole purpose of educating people to teach. The school was located in this building, located on the same site as the present day Hawkins Hall. In January 1929 a tragic fire completely gutted the building, however the school continued to function at other facilities in the city of Plattsburgh. This continued until in September 1934 when a new building, the present day Hawkins Hall was opened and classes resumed on the actual school campus.

Although a college is really defined more by its student body, faculty, and staff, rather than its actual facilities and structures, the "old" and "new" Hawkins Hall have been the center of college activity and moreover the "hallmark" of the college. These buildings saw Plattsburgh change and develop from a small teachers school to a large state university college and functioned as a central and integral part of that past. Hawkins Hall will continue that tradition and go on as a part of Plattsburgh's bright future.

The Graduating Class of 1933

The Graduating Class of 1983

What we know as Plattsburgh State University College is and has been many things to us—a place of learning, a place to grow, a place to discover yourself and the others around you. These are the things that we all share—those who experienced the Plattsburgh of the past, we who experience Plattsburgh of the present, and those who will experience Plattsburgh in the future. Retrospect is a quick glance back at Plattsburgh's past so we can better understand what Plattsburgh has become today, just as this yearbook will someday be your glance back to your past so that you may remember what Plattsburgh was to you and hopefully how it changed a part of you.

To All:

It is almost finished. As I write the final copy, I am proud of the teamwork that has developed from the many different people who gave of themselves to see this book become a reality. The one objective of the entire Yearbook Staff was to present the students of Flatbush State with a Yearbook that contains the essence of this College.

To the Yearbook Staff — Thank you. We all know how little we started with and how much we learned. Each one of you has added a touch of who you are to develop this book and above all, it is you who are responsible for this accomplishment.

There are many to thank and to everyone who has contributed to the success of this book I thank you in particular and above all else, it is to my family and to my Lord that I owe the largest word of gratitude for the love, prayers and blessings that sustained me through many hectic times. Two very special people, Rena and Tony, need to be thanked for supporting and "restraining" me and my ideas.

To Marlee, thanks for always handling those last minute details and for being the best freshman anywhere. I would like to express many thanks to Al Montano for giving me this challenge and for helping me to achieve it. Many thanks to Delma Studios, the Delmar Co. and especially to Gary and Will for being the best people to work with. I would also like to extend a word of appreciation to the staff of Cardinal Points for all their cooperation. And finally, Mrs. P., thank you for the answers to my never-ending questions.

With the final page done, the book is finished. It has been a privilege to be your editor.
